Join us for the inaugural BlaqOUT Conference, a transformative space for people who self-identify as Black/African American or of African descent who also identify as Same Gender Loving, Lesbian, Gay, Bisexual, Queer, Transgender, Questioning or somewhere on the LGBT spectrum.

Friday, April 18
(all-campus event)
HUB 302, 6pm (subject to change)
• Fade in to BlaqOUT “Brother Outsider: The Life of Bayard Rustin” Film Screening

Saturday, April 19
(BlaqOUT registrants only)
HUB 3rd Level, 9am-6pm
• Workshops
• Keynote Speakers
• Discussions
• Lunch
• Spoken Word
• Networking
• Safe & Courageous Spaces

Regular Registration (with T-shirt) - $20
Reduced Registration (no T-shirt) - $10
Scholarships available

Find out more and Apply online by April 1, 2014
blaqOUTucr.blogspot.com